Presidents Corner

Hello everyone,

It has been kind of a crappy winter so far. Cold and no snow. So far, I haven't even started my snowmobiles. The only good thing is I'm getting a lot of work done on my Zirolu Hellcat that I'm building. All the parts are made, I just need to glue them into the tail of the fuse. Then there is all the finish sanding and it can be fibreglassed. It's alot of work, but it has kept me busy this winter. I still have a lot of work to do, but I hope to have it done and flying for Fathers Day.

That's all for now,

Mike Gauerke ☺

I filled out the application for our Fathers Day Fun-Fly a few weeks ago. As usual, I'll need help in the pilot registration and food service. If you're able to help in either area, please let me know. Here's to blue skies, light winds and 75 degrees. ☺

Thank you,

Kelly Sweetman
Newsletter Editor.
