Brrrrr. Flying is starting to wind down at this time. The fridge and freezers have been cleared out and scrubbed inside and out. Thank you Al for doing such a great job!! (Next year is our year to have fun!!)

As we roll into the winter season, give yourselves a little extra travel time and be safe.

Remember we are voting for club officers at the next meeting; so make your presence known.

Also, a reminder to get your AMA dues paid in a timely manner to lessen the burden on the next set of officers. They have enough to get used to without all the extra paperwork.

See you at the meeting,

Scott D. Cordy ☺

Attendance at our swap meet appeared to be down this year, but there were still quite a few deals to be made on planes, engines and other items. I sold almost everything I brought and I bought a little Biplane. Scott sold three or four planes as well.

Thank you Eric for organizing this event and I hope to see everyone again next year.
