Presidents Corner

Well this is what happens when you put in for vacation in December! You never know what the weather is going to be 8 months from t h e n!! As I write this it's just pouring outside and it's going to be pouring all the rest of the day also!

I guess not much new since last month, we had a few good flying days but boy some of them were very humid!

A few weeks ago I had to go pick up some turbine oil that Matt ordered for me and I got a little tour of the guitar shop! That was pretty cool seeing how everything was made .No wonder he's such a good model builder .

Next meeting will be back at the Out Reach Center but remember to social distance yourself and wear your mask.

Scott Cordy
